Fairhaven High School

Class of 2007

100 Years

As this graduating class of 2007 looks ahead to its future, alumni are reflecting on the history of Fairhaven High School. One hundred years ago, the first group of students to attend Fairhaven High School bid goodbye to their brand new school on graduation day. In observation of this one-hundredth year, past and present students of Fairhaven High School celebrated in some truly memorable ways.

In November of 2006, the Centennial Gala was held, commemorating the extensive history of the high school. Artwork reflecting the appreciation for the intricate architecture of the school was displayed, as well as pieces of art honoring the man who financed the construction of our beloved Fairhaven High School: Henry Huttleston Rogers. Those at the Gala also learned of various distinguished graduates of Fairhaven High School who are recognized in the FHS Hall of Fame.

Also in November, students of Fairhaven High School were able to witness a piece of history with the sealing of a time capsule. In the year 2056, the class of 2007 will look on with their children and grandchildren as a box of tokens from the past is opened for the first time since witnessing its closing in 2006. Items of today's technology were stored in the time capsule, such as a cell phone and a compact disc with pictures saved on it. Precious memories from the past were also stowed away, including a class ring, a varsity letter F, and a report card.

No one can foresee what the future will bring or where the class of 2007 will be fifty years from now. However, we are certain that the treasured history of Fairhaven High School will not be forgotten. As we look forward to future years, we take with us the history we were a part of at FHS. Congratulations 100th Class. -- Jennie-Rose Saucier

Colophon

The Huttlestonian 2007 was printed in State College, Pennsylvania by Jostens Publishing Company. Our publishing representative was Norval E. Garnett, Jr. There were 200 copies in our press run. The book covers events from fall 2006 through spring 2007. The typefaces include Times New Roman for the headlines and Helvetica for the body copy. The typefaces the Hawk, Yellow Jacket, and Present were used in the sports section. The typeface Betsy was used for the divider pages.

Our custom school-designed cover is lithographed in four-color process color inks and includes the use of a gloss spot U.V. coating. The trim size is 7 ¾ X 10 ½. The cover material is special litho white linen. The book is bound with recycled cottonwood end sheets and printed on 100 pound gloss text stock. The yearbook staff produced the entire book using a web-based software program, Jostens YearTech Online. Senior portraits, underclassman portraits, school activities, and sports photos were photographed by Marè Studios & Galleries, 98 Front Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts.

Throughout the last four years of our lives, we have all created memorable moments in which we will treasure forever. Through our relationships with friends and teachers at Fairhaven High School we have gained strength to become better people and accomplish our own individual goals. The 2007 Huttlestonian Yearbook Staff and I hope that we have captured your high school career at its best. We hope that years from now, while looking at this yearbook, you will take the time to remember your moments at Fairhaven High School, and realize that those moments helped to mold you as an individual. It is our honor to present the 2007 Huttlestonian Yearbook to the class of 2007.

On a final note, I would like to extend a thank you to the 2007 Huttlestonian Yearbook Staff. Your hard work and dedication to this yearbook have paid off. You have all taken part in creating a memoir of Fairhaven High School. I would also like to congratulate the class of 2007. I wish you all success with whatever path it is you choose to follow in your life. I would also like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to be your editor for the 2007 Huttlestonian Yearbook; it has been my pleasure.

Sincerely,
Ashley Sanders

Janet Robert

Janet Ring had an inkling even back in 1968 that her probable fate was to replace her math department head, Mr. Malcolm. At least, that's what she wrote in her FHS yearbook. Thankfully for the faculty and students here at Fairhaven High, Ms. Ring's fate came true, and she became head of the department in August of 1994. She began her teaching career in 1972 at Hastings Middle School where she taught for 12 years. Along the way, she married and became Mrs. Robert. Eventually an opening arose and she has been a great asset at FHS for the past 23 years. Besides being a dedicated math teacher and department head, she has been the advisor for the National Honor Society and the Math Team. Along with her husband, Paul, who is also getting ready to retire soon, she is the proud mother of two grown children, Dan and Jenn. Mrs. Roberts managed to remain a strong and dedicated teacher even through her son Dan's military tour of Iraq. After her retirement, she plans to spend time playing tennis and kayaking, her favorite hobbies.

Dedications for 35 years of service

Ms. Jacqueline Rolnick has been a devoted member of the FHS faculty since September of 1972. She began her teaching career fresh out of college as a sophomore and senior English teacher. After 10 years in this position, she became the school librarian but was forced to use very inadequate facilities in rooms 209M, 106M, and the old print shop. With the move of the library to its present location, Ms. Rolnick has, as she says, "died and gone to heaven." Besides being a devoted librarian, over the years, she was the AV Club advisor and has been involved in Drama Club Productions. She has also been very active in the FEA Teachers Union. Ms. Rolnick is a dedicated mother to her married son, Nathan, a West Point graduate. During Nathan's military service in Iraq, Ms. Rolnick was extremely supportive and proud. Colleague and friend, Mrs. Christine Rhodes said it best, "She is one of the kindest people I know; she has the utmost integrity." After retiring, Ms. Rolnick plans to travel to warm climates and would like to write for a small newspaper.

In Memory Of...

Did you see us?
We were great.
We had it made.
We were there.

But.
With a single breath.
It was gone.
Everything.

But.
For one week.
Everyone loved us.
We were heroes.
We were great.
Did you see us?

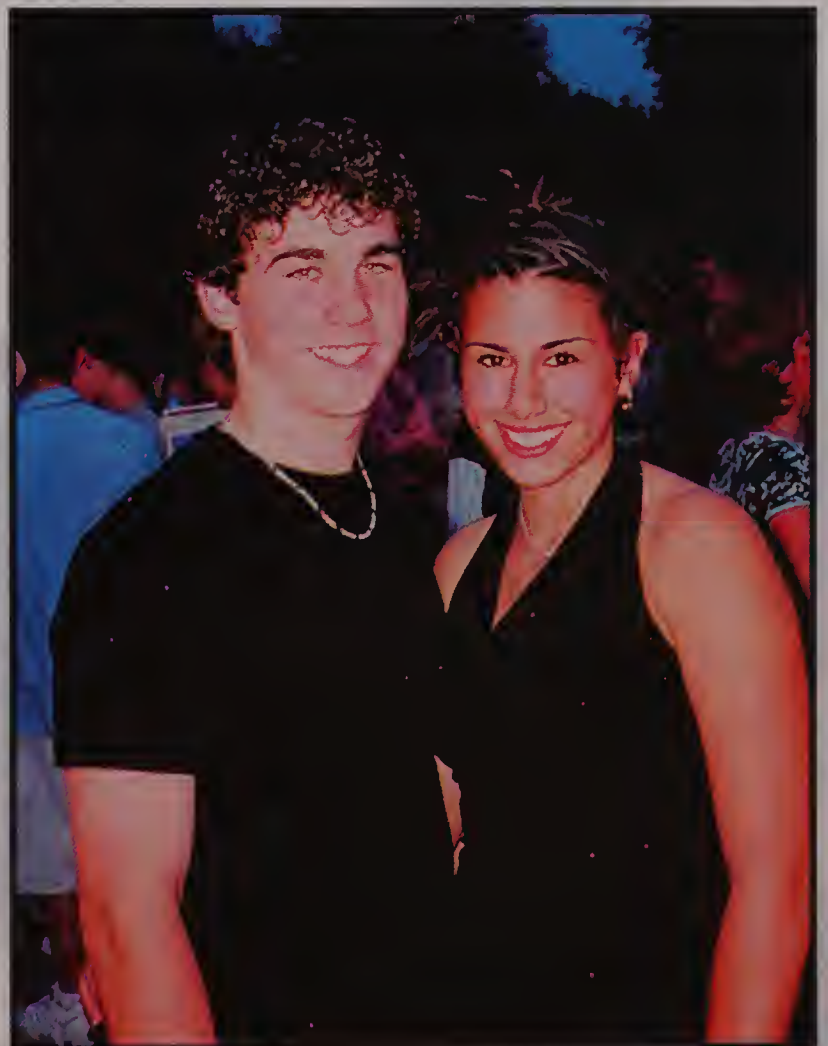

-Matty Oliveira

Matthew Oliveira

Matthew Ryan Oliveira passed away in a tragic go-kart accident the summer before he was to enter high school. Matty was a fun-loving, outgoing kid who could make anyone smile. All of his friends and family learned a valuable lesson through his life; Make the most of every day, because you never know if it will be your last. Although he is not here to graduate with our class, his spirit lives on in each and every one of us.

On behalf of the students, staff, and all of the members of our Fairhaven High School community, I want to thank the class of 2007 for giving me the opportunity to serve them as their principal. I will have fond memories about your responsible activism. When you first arrived as 9th graders, I told your class that I had high expectations for you. I am pleased and proud to say that as a class you have exceeded my expectations. You have become respectful, responsible, and hard working adults. With the guidance that your school and your families have provided, you as a class are well equipped to accomplish great things. Be good human beings, explore the world around you, and make it a better place. Congratulations and good luck.

Senior Class Officers

Class President
Stephen Furtado, Jr.

To my fellow seniors:

We prepare to move on from a life that we have all become accustomed to over these past thirteen years and leave knowing that we have taken a major step in preparing for our futures. Throughout our tenure at Fairhaven High School, we have faced many challenges and obstacles that could have prevented our progress on this journey. However, I am proud to say that we have overcome these difficulties to achieve our ultimate goal when we first began our education, graduating from high school.

It has been an honor to represent this class as your president for the entire four years. I encourage every one of you to continue to celebrate the success you have found in this school and apply it to all of your future goals. Whether you go on to college, join the armed forces, or enter the workplace, always remember what you have learned here at Fairhaven High School and be thankful for the experiences granted to you during this time. I hope that the entire class of 2007 was able to take advantage of this learning process that will effect the rest of our lives.

As we embark upon new adventures, always remember the friendships, the experiences, and the memories we have shared together. On behalf of my fellow class officers, I wish everyone great success and happiness in all of your future endeavors.

Your friend and classmate,
Stephen Furtado

"My will shall shape the future. Whether I fail or succeed shall be no man's doing but my own. I am the force; I can clear any obstacle before me or I can be lost in the maze. My choice; my responsibility; win or lose, only I hold the key to my destiny."

Over the Last Four Years

Well, seniors, congratulations! You've made it! It's been an exciting time - not only in our lives but throughout the world, as well. When we entered FHS as freshmen, the war in Iraq was only six months old. We've had some interesting discussions about this issue in our history classes, and we have learned the importance of remaining true to our own opinions while still being open to new ideas.

We have witnessed the devastation of Hurricane Katrina, the tsunami in the Indian Ocean, and the earthquakes in South Asia. Through these disasters we can attest to the incredible fortitude, strength, and generosity of humankind. We have learned how to empathize with people of different cultures and religions although they may live on the other side of the globe.

Our class and our generation have experienced the most recent wave of technology which has revolutionized the way we live. Although they will certainly be obsolete in a few years, we can always remember listening to our iPods and the holiday gift battles over the xBox360 and the Playstation 3. Hopefully, we can use the technology that we have grown up with to improve the world and provide future generations with more efficient and cost-effective tools.

If the trend continues, we will eventually long for the days when we paid $2.50 for a gallon of gas. We believed and saw the Boston Red Sox take the World Series for the first time in 86 years. We have learned many important lessons in the classroom, yet the events that our children will one day study in their history classes have perhaps shaped our point of view more than any textbook ever could. Remember. Always remember the events, small and large, that made you who you are today.

Seniors 2007

If

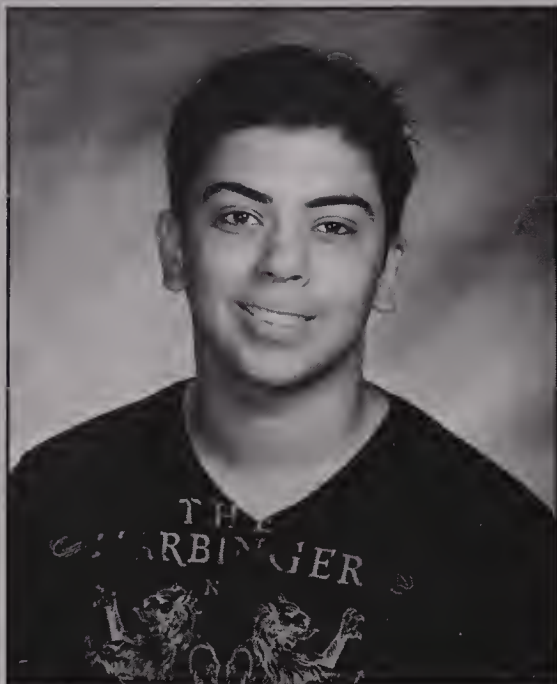

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream -- and not make dreams your master;
If you can think -- and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it all on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breath a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on;"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings -- nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run --
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And -- which is more -- you'll be a Man, my son!

Favorite Quote: "I'm responsible. I'm working hard. I'm respectful. I'm just kidding." Ambition: To attend college, International Business, in Brazil or the USA. Memories: The most memorable moment was my first day of school last year. I did not know how to speak English, and I did not know anybody in this school. I didn't know where my classes were, and I didn't know how to buy food at the cafeteria. It was a big day. Thank You: I want to say thank you to Katie Souza and Lia Carvalho for helping me last year with English. Thank you to all my friends for giving me a good time. I'm going to miss everybody. And also, I want to say thank you to the teachers for being patient with me.

Junior Day 2006

Junior Day

The annual Junior Day celebration is a cherished tradition that is observed exclusively at FHS. While many students treat Junior Day casually, there is, in fact, a long and rich history surrounding the festivities.

Dating back to the 1920s, Junior Day celebrates the junior class transition to seniors. Junior Day is the Friday before graduation, when the junior class students become seniors.

Many of the traditions that were started with the first Junior Day are still in effect today. For example, Junior Day has always been celebrated on a Friday.

The distribution of various awards is associated with Junior Day. However, when Junior Day was first instituted, very few awards were given out.

The Junior Day walk is one of the most recognizable traditions and has stood the test of time. Some students in recent years have exaggerated the sway during the rehearsal and ceremony, but more often than not the students respect the tradition.

The walk is a tradition that no other area schools have. It is a choreographed march into the gymnasium that the students perform on Junior Day and graduation.

Aside from the walk, another tradition is the singing of The Halls of Ivy by the senior class. Style of dress is part of the ceremony. Junior girls typically wear a white dress and carry a yellow rose while the junior boys wear a white dress shirt with khaki pants.

Although a great deal of tradition surrounds Junior Day, the celebration is continually evolving. However, evolving or not, junior day remains a rite of passage that is valued by the Fairhaven community.

Underclassmen 2007

Class of 2010

The freshman class officers have entered into their high school career with an aim to succeed. Two of the class officers, Leah Ketchum and Allison Furtado, have older siblings who have served as presidents of their class- Kelsey Ketchum, Class of 2006, and Steve Furtado, Class of 2007. A few of their fundraisers included selling chocolate covered strawberries and Dorothy Cox candy bars.

Class of 2009

The sophomore class went on a fundraising rampage this year, holding a bake sale during the lunch period every month. They also had a "computer compatibility" fundraiser in which students filled out a survey and then paid a small fee to get their results. They certainly will not need to worry about a tight budget for the remainder of their time at FHS.

Class of 2008

Working with the senior class this year in their fundraising, the juniors have been very productive. Whether it was working at the basketball concession stand or helping at the Snowball dance, the juniors were successful in raising money for their class. Some of the fundraisers they did on their own included a holiday gift fundraiser and Fairhaven Idol.

Junior Class of 2008

To the Class of 2008,

As our junior year comes to a close, it is evident that our mark on Fairhaven High School has been made. As we enter our senior year, I would like to ask all of you for continued support in the ventures of our class. I would also like to remind you that next year, as seniors, it will be our job to teach the incoming freshmen about the high school, and we will become the role models for the other classes. Thus, I urge you to follow in the words of Paulo Coelho and believe that when we strive to become better than we are, everything around us becomes better too. If our class is able to strive to become better, we will impact the other classes in the school to share the same values and make Fairhaven High School the great place that it was meant to be.

To the Class of 2009,

I would like to thank you for making my first year as class president very effective. We have made a lot of progress and plan on making more. We have come a long way from the beginning of our freshman year to the end of our sophomore year with many memories, and we still have two years to make many more. I hope next year will be just as effective as this one has been. As we continue to merge together as a class, we will find that we will have a great impact on our school. Thank you and keep up the good work.

Freshman Class of 2010

To the Class of 2010,

Firstly, I would like to thank you for voting me as class president. I greatly appreciate it. The freshman class started off on a good foot, and I anticipate the next three years to be filled with fun and great memories. Thanks for all the help and ideas with all of the fundraisers. It means a great deal and paid off. Let's keep up the good work. We are a great class and will have a great prom and Junior Day!

What nobler employment, or more valuable to the state, than that of the man who instructs the rising generation.

- Marcus Tullius Cicero

Despite great friends, exciting memories, and a blend of new experiences, our time at FHS could not have been possible without the people who guided us through four challenging years -- the FHS faculty. They have taught us how to read Shakespeare and solve mathematical equations. They have explained the importance of history and demonstrated the values of character and integrity. Now, as we finally move on to the next chapter of our lives, they have a few things left to say ...

"If you can't change the situation, you have to change your mind."

-Mrs. Donna Cordeiro

"Live your life to its fullest, experience all you can, and have no regrets!"

-Mrs. Carrie Mailloux

"Listen to that little voice inside of you. It won't let you down."

-Mrs. Jane Pease

Success is failure turned inside out -
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt -
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit -
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.
- Ms. Maureen Young

Faculty 2007

"Be true to who you are."
-Mr. David Ryder

"Play intramural sports in college. They're a lot of fun. Also, don't schedule 8:00 a.m. classes until you are mature enough to wake up that early."
-Mr. Scott Francis

"There are three things you should never do half-heartedly - laugh, love, and live."
-Ms. Nichole Brigger

"It's pretty easy to criticize the flaws we see in others. It's not so easy to see and then do something about the flaws we find in ourselves."
-Mr. Doug Medeiros

"If you don't fail, you can't learn. If you don't learn, you can't change."
-Ms. Katie Mello

"Work hard. Persevere."
- Dr. David Welty, Ph.d.

Sports are undoubtedly a very important part of any high school's culture, and FHS is no exception. Despite significant financial setbacks, the Fairhaven community has banded together to sponsor FHS athletics. With support from the community, parents, and coaches, FHS athletic teams have maintained a solid performance in district and state competitions.

Fall Sports Wrap Up

The fall sports season was marked by a dedicated Blue Devil football team, with a final record of 4 wins & 7 losses. The volleyball team once again represented FHS proudly in the season's tournament. Boys soccer also worked hard to defeat Wareham, Bourne, & Case. Girls soccer fought to earn enough wins to take FHS to the tournament. Boys cross country gave an admirable showing, and the team placed 3rd in the SCC championships. Girls cross country also had a successful season with wins against Apponequet & Seekonk. Field hockey gave a solid performance with victories over Westport, Wareham, Case, & Bourne. Golf also worked hard and earned victories over Old Colony, Wareham, & Case. The FHS Cheerleaders earned 2nd place at the fall SCOs, allowing them to move on to the regional competition.

Sports 2007

Winter Sports Wrap Up

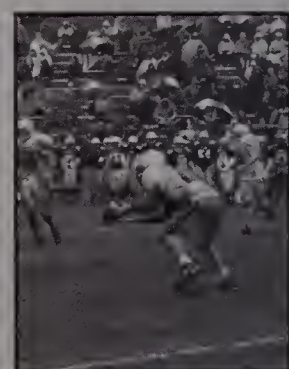

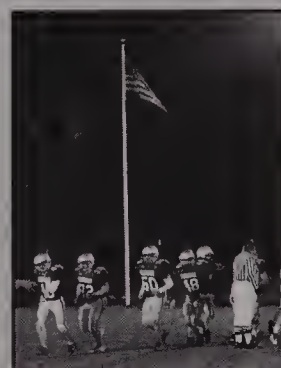

The winter season was wrapped up when the Lady Blue Devils basketball team ended their season with a record of 22 wins and 4 losses. The Lady Devils made it farther than any girls basketball team in the history of Fairhaven High School, making it all the way to the state tournament at UMASS Boston against Archbishop Williams. The boys basketball team ended with a record of 11 wins and 10 losses, also making it to a tournament game against Rockland. Boys and girls basketball also had outstanding performances from senior Nick Motta and junior Erin Baldwin, each scoring over 1,000 points during their high school basketball careers. The combined ORR/FHS ice hockey team ended with a record of 15 wins, 2 losses, and 5 ties, also making it into the tournament. The FHS cheerleaders placed 2nd at the SCC competition at Dighton Rehoboth, 3rd at the regional competition at Taunton High School, and 6th at the state competition at Gloucester High School. Boys and girls track both had very successful seasons with outstanding performances from Chas Mitchell, Laura Gray, and Sara Pacheco.

Senior Sports Awards Night

In Loving Memory of Tom Reynolds

A lot comes to mind when people mention Tom. He was definitely a one-of-a-kind individual, from heel-clicking through the halls to running kids over on the football field. Tom always seemed to be having fun and the people who were around him were always laughing, waiting for his next joke. Tom loved being the center of attention. You never knew exactly what he was going to do next, but at one time or another he would find a way to make you smile. Sadly, he left us unexpectedly, but for the time he was here, he lived every day to the fullest. Rest in peace Tom. You will always be in our hearts.

Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success.

- Henry Ford

For the last four years, our class has been extremely busy! Foreign exchange students have wondered at our hectic schedules. Parents have warned against having too much on our plates. Teachers have reminded us to put academics first on our list of priorities. Looking back, we must only feel proud for taking advantage of every venue high school had to offer us. Not only have we participated in sports outside of school, but there is also a long list of clubs indicative of the wide range of talents and interests of our class.

Spanish and French Club

One of the largest clubs at FHS was Spanish Club, accepting any student who took a Spanish class. Lip Sync and trips to New York were some of the unforgettable events of both Spanish and French Clubs. And let's not forget Foreign Language Week! The rivalry was always fierce at those Spanish vs. French Volleyball Games!

Book Club

A new club was started this year - Book Club. A small group of ambitious students read books, each over a two or three-week period. They then met and talked about the books after they read them.

Environmental Club

The Environmental Club found ways to help their environment through recycling and beach clean-ups. They also participated in exploring our own backyard through hiking and rowing around spots in Fairhaven and New Bedford.

Interact Club

Interact students had fun volunteering in the community through the Winter Warmth drive, serving at a soup kitchen, and helping out at the Rotary Club auction and the M.O. LIFE Ball. They also participated in major events such as the annual Walk for Hunger in Boston and the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life.

Chess Club

Chess Club was a great way for students to both learn chess and be challenged by students from other schools. They held one practice and one competition each week. Students learned values such as sportsmanship and higher order thinking skills.

National Honor Society

Students who met high academic standards were inducted into the National Honor Society at the end of sophomore year. They competed in Honor Bowls, held fundraisers, and had a great time doing crafts with the kindergarten students from the East Fairhaven Elementary School, whose classes have been located in the FHS basement for the past two years.

Clubs and Activities 2007

Art Club

Artistic students found an outlet for their creativity through Art Club. They handcrafted objects to sell at the Ole Time Holiday weekend. They also visited art museums such as the Fogg at Harvard, the Isabella Stewart Gardner, and the Museum of Fine Arts.

Student Council

Student Council held elections each year for freshmen through seniors to be representatives at both Student Advisory Council and School Committee meetings. A junior and senior were elected to attend the Student Government Day in Boston at the Statehouse. The Student Council also did a lot of fundraising, such as Dinner for Two books, as they will award a scholarship for the first time this year.

Poetry Club

Poetry Club will be remembered for their annual publication of Blue Ink, a booklet of poetry submitted by faculty and students. At club meetings, students shared an original poem and discussed its meaning.

Drama Club

Drama Club pulled off successful musicals in the last four years. Our freshman year, it was Me and My Girl, sophomore year it was State Fair, junior year was Guys and Dolls, and Anything Goes was debuted our senior year.

Peer Mentors

The Peer Mentor program helped freshmen get accustomed to high school. On Orientation Day, they served as guides, and throughout the year, they helped freshmen become acquainted with academic, cultural, and social life at FHS.

Good Morning FHS

"Good Morning FHS" is the only live high school TV morning show in the area which is broadcasted throughout the school and to the Comcast viewers in town. Each semester, anchor try-outs were held, and each morning we were greeted with friendly faces and recent announcements.

Math Team

Math Team had a successful year, achieving one of their best records. They had fun drilling out equations and solving tough problems.

Spanish Exchange Students

In the fall of 2006, F.H.S. hosted a group of Spanish exchange students for three weeks. The Spanish students visited Boston, Providence, and New York in an attempt to get a sense of what America is really like. It is a very unique experience to spend an extended period of time with a person one's own age from another part of the world. It is especially surprising to discover that despite the language barrier and differences in customs, the other person is just like you. Participating in a foreign exchange program can provide you with memories, and, with a little effort, a friendship, that will last a lifetime.

Russian Exchange Student

Natalya Shavshina

For Natalya Shavshina, a Russian foreign exchange student, high school has been about much more than trigonometry and homework. Instead, she has had the opportunity to not only study, but participate in, an entirely different way of life. Apart from competing on the volleyball, basketball, and track teams, Natalya has balanced a challenging schedule including several senior classes. Although everyone has presuppositions about people from different cultures, Natalya has been pleasantly surprised by her new American friends. Despite language barriers, culture clash, and a different set of values and beliefs, Natalya has greatly contributed to the diversity of the student body at Fairhaven High School. Through the Future Leaders Exchange program, students like Natalya have the opportunity to spend time in a different country and learn about a foreign culture. She has learned about Americans' love of sports and competition, and her friends have come to realize the innumerable benefits of having friends from different cultures.

Class of 2007

Sara,

Congratulations!
We love you
& your million dollar smile.
Take it with you wherever you go.
Let it shine
with your big heart to match.

Love, Mom, Dad and Dan

Congrats, Josh!

You are by far one of the greatest blessings of my life.

My pride for you never stops growing;
neither does my love.
Follow your dreams.

Beaucoup de l'amour, Mom

Shannon,

The first day of kindergarten was scary.
The last day of high school will be sad.

It's all the memories in between we'll remember and cherish.
When in doubt . . . dance!

Mom, Dad, and Molly

Congratulations,
Casey
&
Mitchell!

It's hard to believe your graduation is here!

XO We love you XO

Congratulations Tracy!

We are all very proud of you.
It's hard to believe
you are graduating.
We love you.

Mom, Dad, Amy, and Tony

Beanie,

You have grown into a beautiful, young woman.
We are so proud of all you've accomplished.
May all your dreams
come true.

Remember the best is yet to come for you.

*Love,
Mom and Dad*

Look how the years quickly passed by!

Wishing
a terrific future to a wonderful daughter.

We love you!
Mom and Dad

Jennie,

Congratulations!
We're very proud of you! Great job!
Numero Uno! Dos?

*Lots of love,
Mom, Dad, Alicia, and Laura*

Thanks for being the best lil' sis
anyone could ask for.
I love you
and I am very proud of you.

*Love,

Heather,

We have the best daughter.
You have made us so proud. Best wishes for a happy and successful future.

*Love you always,
Mom and Dad*

Elle,

"The hardest thing on earth is choosing what matters."
- The Secret Life of Bees.
Always remember what matters.
I'm so proud of you.
Enjoy college.

*Love you,
Mom*

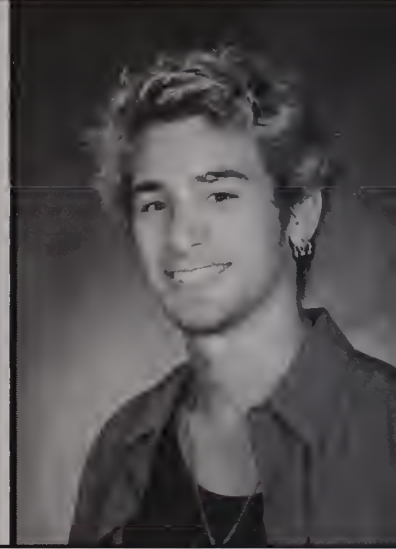

"He is lucky, this little boy of mine. He will not conquer the worlds of the academic, the scientific, or the great doers, but he has a unique appreciation for the ordinary rites of life that seem only dull and jaded to the rest of us."

I am so proud of you.
Love, Mom

Dan,

We are extremely proud of you. We love you so very much!
Have a great time in college.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Samantha

Nini,

"I don't want to see you."
"You're ugly."
But I love you so much!

Love,

Congratulations,

To the best son in the whole wide world!

Chris,

We are so proud of you.

The future is yours, so just follow your dreams.

Remember:

"to thine own self be true."

Love,
Mom, Dad and Alyssa

Amanda,

We hope your future brings as much happiness for you, as you have brought for us.

We are so proud of you and who you are as a person.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Peder

Shuleka,

Whatever your hopes, whatever your dreams, have the strength and the belief in yourself to accomplish them while keeping your sense of humor.

Love you,
T. Hilda

"Our princess"

We are so proud of you. All of your hard work paid off. We can't believe your graduating.

It seems like yesterday that you graduated from King's Kids.

Love,
